About Author

Maudy Ayunda is an Indonesian singer-songwriter, actress, and activist. She graduated from Oxford University in 2016, and commits most of her time in music, writing, and promoting social causes surrounding youth, literacy, and education.

Kathrin Honestais an Indonesian illustrator who focuses more on story-telling & book-related projects. Kathrin's works often tell stories of faith and people. To her, artwork is not merely about pretty aesthetics, but also the message it conveys.

Behind The Book

This book and the Kina's Story series is the result of a beautiful coincidence. It is a retelling of short stories I wrote when I was 10 years old, found accidentally in my old archives. With some encouragement, I decided to simplify it and share it to the world with a mission: to promote literacy, bilingual learning, and meaningful moral stories accompanied by captivating imagery as beautifully crafted by my good friend Kathrin.

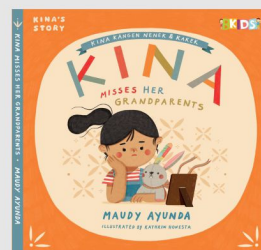

I hope that all of us - adults and children alike - can smile and find inspiration from these pages.

Yours truly,
Maudy Ayunda
